SPECIAL EVENT

The Mt. Lebanon Public Library presents The Joe Wertheim Author Lecture (in memory of Elaine's husband) with author Stewart O'Nan, Tuesday, March 24, 7 pm at the Mellon Middle School on Castle Shannon Blvd, across from the library. This event honors the memory of Joe Wertheim, an avid reader and long-time library patron who had served nine years on the library board, including a term as President, and the President of the Friends of Mt. Lebanon Public Library.

Stewart O'Nan's award-winning fiction includes Snow Angels, A Prayer for the Dying, Last Night at the Lobster, and Emily, Alone. Granta named him one of America's Best Young Novelists. His new novel, West of Sunset, published in January of this year, is a portrait of F. Scott Fitzgerald's last years in Hollywood.

Stewart O'Nan was born at St. Margaret's and raised in Point Breeze, where he delivered both the Pittsburgh Press and the Post-Gazette. He attended Linden School and Taylor Allderdice High School. Since returning to Pittsburgh he's read his work at Pitt, CMU, Duquesne, Chatham, Carlow and Point Park University. A Pirates season ticket holder since the bad old days, he lives in Regent Square. stewart-onan.com/
